Message for this week's Parish Bulletin

World Meeting of Families 2018

Parishioners who require tickets for the Meath diocesan day in the RDS are invited to book online via www.dioceseofmeath.ie/wmof2018 not later than Friday 8 June as all tickets are nearly sold for the event.

Information for Parish Staff & Clergy:

- Expressions of interest from potential Host Families and Volunteers for the RDS, Croke Park & the Phoenix Park are still being accepted. Please email Fr Phil Gaffney or Fr Robert McCabe via meath.wmof2018@gmail.com for further details.
- 250 singers from around the diocese have offered to help with the choir for the RDS and the Phoenix Park. Applications have now closed for the choir. Rehearsal dates will be circulated to all potential choir members on Tuesday 5 June.
- The Meath diocesan gathering on Wednesday 22 August in the RDS is almost sold-out. Any parishioners who wish to attend are encouraged to purchase their tickets not later than Friday 8 June.
- An opening ceremony will be held on Tuesday 21 August at deanery level around the diocese of Meath. Details of this ceremony will be made available to participants at the workshop in St Mary's, Navan on Thursday 7 June.
- A family from every parish in Ireland is being invited to attend the Croke Park Festival of Families with Pope Francis on Saturday 25 August. Allocation of tickets will be made to every parish in mid-June. More details from the diocesan committee.
- The papal schedule will be published after the June meeting of the Bishops' Conference.
- Tickets for the Phoenix Park Mass will be made available from mid-June.
