Feast of Saint Patrick
Saint Patrick, bishop – Principal Patron of Ireland
17th March

Entrance Antiphon (Genesis 12:1-2)

Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing.

Collect

Lord, through the work of Saint Patrick in Ireland we have come to acknowledge the mystery of the one true God and give thanks for our salvation in Christ;
grant by his prayers that we who celebrate this festival may keep alive the fire of faith he kindled.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings:

First Reading: Jeremiah 31:31-34

I will write my Law in their hearts.

See, the days are coming – it is the Lord who speaks – when I will make a new covenant with the House of Israel (and the House of Judah), but not a covenant like the one I made with their ancestors on the day I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt. They broke that covenant of mine, so I had to show them who was master. It is the Lord who speaks. No, this is the covenant I will make with the House of Israel when those days arrive – it is the Lord who speaks. Deep within them I will plant my Law, writing it on their hearts. Then I will be their God and they shall be my people. There will be no further need for neighbour to try to teach neighbour, or brother to say to brother, 'Learn to know the Lord!'

No, they will all know me, the least no less than the greatest – it is the Lord who speaks – since I will forgive their iniquity and never call their sin to mind.

Responsorial Psalm:

Psalm 50:3-4, 12-15

Response: A pure heart create for me, O God.

Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness.
In your compassion blot out my offence.
O wash me more and more from my guilt and cleanse me from my sin. R./

A pure heart create for me, O God, put a steadfast spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from your presence, nor deprive me of your holy spirit. R./

Give me again the joy of your help;
with a spirit of fervour sustain me, that I may teach transgressors your ways and sinners may return to you. R./

Second Reading: Hebrews 5:7-9

He learned to obey and he became the source of eternal salvation.

During his life on earth, Christ offered up prayer and entreaty, aloud and in silent tears, to the one who had the power to save him out of death, and he submitted so humbly that his prayer was heard. Although he was Son, he learnt to obey through suffering; but having been made perfect, he became for all who obey him the source of eternal salvation.

Gospel Acclamation: James 1:21

Glory to you, O Christ, you are the Word of God!
Whoever serves me must follow me, says the Lord;
and where I am, there also will my servant be.
Glory to you, O Christ, you are the Word of God!

Gospel Reading: John 12:20-33

If a grain of wheat falls on the ground and dies, it yields a rich harvest.

Among those who went up to worship at the festival were some Greeks. These approached Philip, who came from Bethsaida in Galilee, and put this request to him, ‘Sir, we should like to see Jesus.’ Philip went to tell Andrew, and Andrew and Philip together went to tell Jesus. Jesus replied to them: ‘Now the hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. I tell you, most solemnly, unless a wheat grain falls on the ground and dies, it remains only a single grain; but if it dies, it yields a rich harvest. Anyone who loves his life loses it; anyone who hates his life in this world will keep it for the eternal life. If a man serves me, he must follow me, wherever I am, my servant will be there too. If anyone serves me, my Father will honour him. Now my soul is troubled. What shall I say: Father, save me from this hour? But it was for this very reason that I have come to this hour. Father, glorify your name!’ A voice came from heaven, ‘I have glorified it, and I will glorify it again.’ People standing by, who heard this, said it was a clap of thunder; others said, ‘It was an angel speaking to him.’ Jesus answered, ‘It was not for my sake that this voice came, but for yours. ‘Now sentence is being passed on this world;

now the prince of this world is to be overthrown.
And when I am lifted up from the earth,
I shall draw all men to myself.’
By these words he indicated the kind of death he would die.

St. Patrick's Day (B)

Prayers of the Faithful

Celebrant:

With God's wisdom to guide us and His strength to uphold us, we bring our prayers before the Lord.

1. For our Holy Father Francis, that he may have continued good health to proclaim the merciful love of God. Lord, hear us.

2. St. Patrick prayed, 'May the wisdom of God instruct us'. We pray for all currently working for an end to the conflict in Gaza, Israel, Ukraine and throughout the world. May your wisdom inspire them, your shield protect them, and your generosity provide for their needs. Lord, hear us.

3. For all who, like Patrick, are forced into exile across the world: help them overcome the obstacles and challenges they face on a daily basis, and may they be treated with respect, hospitality, and welcome wherever they seek refuge and asylum. Lord, hear us.

4. Go mbeidh trócaire Dé soiléir inár saol laethúil sa chuí a shínimid amach chucu sin a bhfuil riachtanais acu tríd easpa dídine, ocras agus géarleanúna. A Thiarna, eist linn.

May we witness to God's mercy in our daily lives as we reach out to those who are homeless, hungry and persecuted. Lord, hear us.

5. For all who will be initiated into the Church this Easter, that the seeds of the Gospel within them may yield a rich harvest of prayer, faith and service. Lord, hear us.

6. For our undocumented in the United States, Australia and throughout the world: may solutions be found to integrate them freely and legitimately into society. Lord, hear us.

7. We pray for those who leave our shores in search of new beginnings and for those who have come to our country to make their home. May they experience an abundance of blessings in the care and support of their new communities. Lord, hear us.

8. Guímis ar son na ndaoine a fuar bás sa pharóiste seo le déanaí sa mbaile agus i gcéin, go ndéana Dia trócaire ar a n-anamacha dílis. A Thiarna, eist linn.

We pray for those have died recently from this parish at home and abroad, may God have mercy on their faithful souls. Lord, hear us.

Celebrant:

Heavenly Father, through St. Patrick and the saints you have planted in our hearts the hope of eternal life. Hear our prayers and bring us and all of our loved ones to the joys of the kingdom of heaven. Through our Lord Jesus Christ your son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

Prayer over the Gifts

Lord, accept this pure sacrifice which, through the labours of Saint Patrick, your grateful people make to the glory of your name.
Through Christ our Lord.

Preface

V/. The Lord be with you.

R/. And also with you.

V/. Lift up your hearts.

R/. We lift them up to the Lord.

V/. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

R/. It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks,
Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God, and to offer you fitting praise
as we honour Saint Patrick.

For you drew him through daily prayer in captivity and hardship to know you as a loving father.

You chose him out of all the world to return to the land of his captors, that they might acknowledge Jesus Christ, their Redeemer.

In the power of you Spirit you directed his paths to win the sons and daughters of the Irish to the service of the Triune God.

With joyful hearts we echo on earth the song of the angels in heaven as they praise your glory without end:

Holy, Holy, Holy...

Communion Antiphon (Cf Matthew 8:11)

Many will come from east and west and sit down with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob at the feast in the kingdom of heaven, says the Lord.

Prayer after Communion

Strengthen us, O Lord, by this sacrament so that we may profess the faith taught by Saint Patrick and to proclaim it in our way of living.
Through Christ our Lord.

Solemn Blessing

May God the Father, who called us together to celebrate this feast of Saint Patrick, bless you , protect you, and keep you faithful.

R/. Amen.

May Christ the Lord, the High King of Heaven, be near you at all times and shield you from evil.

R/. Amen.

May the Holy Spirit, who is the source of all holiness, make you rich in the love of God's people.

R/. Amen.

And may the blessing of almighty God,
the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, come down on you and remain for ever.

R/. Amen.

DEASGHNÁTHA NA COMAOINEACH

S: Aitheanta an tslánaithe dár dtreorú agus briathar Dé dár dteagasc, tá sé de mhisneach againn a rá:

Ár nAthair atá ar neamh, go naofar d'ainm, go dtaga do ríocht, go ndéantar do thoil ar an talamh, mar a dhéantar ar neamh.

Ár n-arán laethúil tabhair dúinn inniu, agus maith dúinn ár bhfiacha, mar a mhaithimidne dár bhféichiúna féin, agus ná lig sinn i gcathú, ach saor sinn ó olc.

Leanann an sagart féin air agus a lámha sínte uaidh amach aige:

S: Saor sinn ó gach olc, impimid ort, a Thiarna. Tabhair dúinn go cineálta síocháin lenár linn, ionas go mbeimid, le cúnamh do thrócaire, tugaim daoibh mo shíocháin:

ná féach ar ár bpeacaí-ne
ach ar chreideamh d'Eaglaise; deonaigh síocháin a thabhairt di agus í a aontú, faoi mar is toil leat féin, tusa a mhaireann agus a rialaíonn trí shaol na saol. P: Amen.

An cumasc seo de Chorp agus d'Fhuil ár d'Tiarna, Íosa Críost, go dtuga sé chun na beatha síoraí sinne a ghlacann é.

Idir an dá linn cantar:

A Uain Dé, a thógann peacaí an domhain, déan
trócaire orainn.

A Uain Dé, a thógann peacaí an domhain, déan
trócaire orainn.

A Uain Dé, a thógann peacaí an domhain, tabhair dúinn síocháin.

Ansin, agus a bhosa le chéile aige, deir an sagart go rúnda:

A Thiarna Íosa Críost, Mac Dé bheo, thug do bhás beathadon domhan le toil an Athar agus le cabhair an Spioraid Naoimh: saor mé ó mo pheacaí uile, agus ó gach urchóidtrí do Chorp agus d'Fhuil rónaofa:
tabhair dom cloí i gcónaí le d'aitheanta agus ná lig dom scaradh leat choíche.

Feacann an sagart a ghlúin; tógann sé an abhlann shárnaofa ina lámh; coimeádannin airde í beagán os cionn an phaitheana nó na cailíse; deir sé os ard agus a aghaidh ar an bpobal:

S: Seo é Uan Dé, seo é an té a thógann peacaí an domhain. Is méanar dóibh siúd a fuair cuireadh chun séire an Uain.

Ansin deir sé aon uair amháin i gcomhar leis an bpobal:

A Thiarna, ní fiú mé go dtiocfá faoi mo dhíon, ach abairse an focal agus leigheasfar m'anam.

Agus a aghaidh ar an altóir, deir an sagart go rúnda:

Go dtuga Corp Chríost slán chun na beatha síoraí mé.

Glacann sé Corp Chríost le hurraim. Ansin tógann sé an chailís ina lámhagus deir go rúnda:

Go dtuga Fuil Chríost slán chun na beatha síoraí mé.

P. Amen.

Go raibh Críost, an Tiarna, Ardrí na bhflaitheas, i ngar daoibh i gcónaí agus go gcumhdaí sé sibh ar an olc.

BLESSING OF SHAMROCK

Heavenly Father,

We gather today to celebrate the life and ministry of Patrick your servant.

We ask you to bless this shamrock, our national symbol used by Patrick in his ministry to our ancestors.

You are truly one God and Three Persons,
a Trinity of love and compassion.

Through wearing this blessed shamrock, may we be reminded that your Most Holy Trinity watches over and blesses our daily lives.

We ask your blessing, ✠ in the name of the Father, creator of all, in the name of the Son, your Word made flesh and in the name of the Holy Spirit who consoles us and reminds us of your love for us, one God forever and ever.

Amen

Or

God of power and goodness, source of all grace and crown of all the saints, through the intercession of Saint Patrick grant that as we wear this shamrock brought here for your ✠ blessing, we may be eager to imitate him whose life we celebrate,

and that our reward in heaven

may be the company of Saint Patrick whose prayerful protection is our comfort on earth.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

ST. PATRICK, APOSTLE TO THE IRISH

The man who would come to be known as Saint Patrick, apostle of Ireland, was born in Britain circa 386 A.D. His father, Calphurnius, was a deacon from a Roman family of high social standing. Patrick's mother, Conchessa, was a close relative of the great patron Saint Martin of Tours. Patrick's grandfather, Pontius, was also a member of the clergy.

Surprisingly, Patrick himself was not raised with a strong emphasis on religion. Education was not particularly stressed during his childhood either. Later in life, this would become a source of embarrassment, who would write in his Confessio, "I blush and fear exceedingly to reveal my lack of education."

Enslaved as a Teen

When Patrick was 16 years old, he was captured by Irish raiders. They brought him to Ireland where he was sold into slavery in Dalriada. There his job was to tend sheep. Patrick's master, Milchu, was a high priest of Druidism, a Pagan sect that held major religious influence over the country at the time.

Lonely and afraid, Patrick turned to his religion for solace and Patrick came to view his enslavement as God's test of his faith. During his six years of captivity, he became deeply devoted to Christianity through constant prayer. In a vision, he saw the children of pagan Ireland reaching out their hands to him and grew increasingly determined to convert the Irish to Christianity.

Freedom & Religious Calling

Around 408 A.D., the idea of escaping enslavement came to Patrick in a dream, in which a voice promised him he would find his way home to Britain.

A free man once again, Patrick went to Auxerre, France, where he studied and entered the priesthood under the guidance of the missionary Saint Germain. He was ordained a deacon by the Bishop of Auxerre around 418 A.D. As time passed, he never lost sight of his vision to convert Ireland to Christianity. In 432 A.D., he was ordained as a bishop and was soon sent by Pope Celestine I to Ireland to spread the gospel to non-believers while also providing support to the small community of Christians already living there.

Missionary Work

Recognizing the history of spiritual practices already in place, nature-oriented pagan rituals were also incorporated into church practices. Familiar with the Irish language and culture, Patrick chose to incorporate traditional ritual into his lessons of Christianity instead of attempting to eradicate native Irish beliefs. For instance, he used bonfires to celebrate Easter since the Irish were used to honouring their gods with fire. He also superimposed a sun, a powerful Irish symbol, onto the Christian cross to create what is now called a Celtic cross, so that veneration of the symbol would seem more natural to the Irish. Throughout his missionary work, Patrick supported church officials, created councils, founded monasteries and organized Ireland into dioceses.

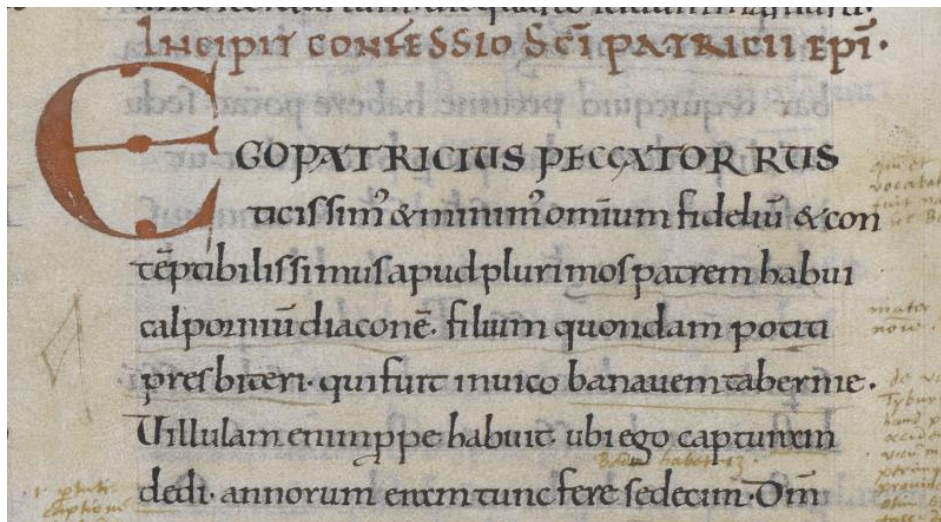

Death and Legacy: Saint Patrick's Day

Saint Patrick died circa 461 A.D. in Saul, Ireland, and is said to have been buried in the nearby town of Downpatrick, County Down. Two writings survive: the Letter to Coroticus, a protest to the soldiers of a British prince who had killed some converts and sold others as slaves, and his Confession, written near the end of his life, showing him as one living by the faith he preached and allowing Christ to direct his whole life.

CONFESSIO OF PATRICK

1. I am Patrick, a sinner, the most rustic and least of all the faithful, the most contemptible in the eyes of a great many people. My father was Calpornius, a deacon and the son of the presbyter Potitus. He came from the village of Bannaventaberniae where he had a country residence nearby. It was there that I was taken captive. I was almost sixteen at the time and I did not know the true God. I was taken into captivity to Ireland with many thousands of people. We deserved this fate because

- we had turned away from God; we neither kept his commandments nor obeyed our priests who used to warn us about our salvation. The Lord's fury bore down on us and he scattered us among many heathen peoples, even to the ends of the earth. This is where I now am, in all my insignificance, among strangers.
2. The Lord there made me aware of my unbelief that I might at last advert to my sins and turn whole-heartedly to the Lord my God. He showed concern for my weakness, and pity for my youth and ignorance; he watched over me before I got to know him and before I was wise or distinguished good from evil. In fact he protected me and comforted me as a father would his son.
 3. I cannot be silent then, nor indeed should I, about the great benefits and grace that the Lord saw fit to confer on me in the land of my captivity.

This is the way we repay God for correcting us and taking notice of us; we honour and praise his wonders before every nation under heaven.

4. There is no other God, there never was and there never will be, than God the Father unbegotten and without beginning, from whom is all beginning, holding all things as we have learned; and his son Jesus Christ whom we declare to have been always with the Father and to have been begotten spiritually by the Father in a way that baffles description, before the beginning of the world, before all beginning; and through him are made all things, visible and invisible. He was made man, defeated death and was received into heaven by the Father, who has given him all power over all names in heaven, on earth, and under the earth; and every tongue should acknowledge to him that Jesus Christ is the Lord God. We believe in him and we look for his coming soon as judge of the living and of the dead, who will treat every man according to his deeds. He has poured out the Holy Spirit on us in abundance, the gift and guarantee of eternal life, who makes those who believe and obey sons of God and joint heirs with Christ. We acknowledge and adore him as one God in the Trinity of the holy name.
5. He himself has said through the prophet: Call upon me in the day of your trouble; and I will deliver you, and you shall glorify me. He also says: it is honourable to reveal and confess the works of God.
6. Although I am imperfect in many ways I want my brothers and relatives to know what Kind of man I am, so that they may perceive the aspiration of my life.
7. I know well the statement of the Lord which he makes in the psalm: You will destroy those who speak falsely. He says again: A lying mouth destroys the soul. The same Lord says in the Gospel: On the day of judgement men will render account for every careless word they utter.
8. I ought therefore to dread with fear and trembling the sentence of that day when no one will be able to escape or hide, but when all of us will have to give an account of even our smallest sins before the court of the Lord Christ.

ST PATRICK'S BREASTPLATE

The popular prayer Saint Patrick's Breastplate is contained in the ancient Book of Armagh, from the early ninth century, along with Patrick's authentic "Confession." Saint Patrick is said to have written this prayer to strengthen himself with God's protection as he prepared to confront and convert Lóegaire, High King of Ireland.

I arise today
Through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity,
Through the belief in the threeness,
Through confession of the oneness
Of the Creator of Creation.

I arise today
Through the strength of Christ's birth with his baptism,
Through the strength of his crucifixion with his burial,
Through the strength of his resurrection with his ascension,
Through the strength of his descent for the judgment of Doom.

I arise today
Through the strength of the love of Cherubim,
In obedience of angels,
In the service of archangels,
In hope of resurrection to meet with reward,
In prayers of patriarchs,
In predictions of prophets,
In preaching of apostles,
In faith of confessors,
In innocence of holy virgins,
In deeds of righteous men.

I arise today
Through the strength of heaven:
Light of sun,
Radiance of moon,
Splendor of fire,
Speed of lightning,
Swiftness of wind,
Depth of sea,
Stability of earth,

Firmness of rock.

I arise today

Through God's strength to pilot me:

God's might to uphold me,

God's wisdom to guide me,

God's eye to look before me,

God's ear to hear me,

God's word to speak for me,

God's hand to guard me,

God's way to lie before me,

God's shield to protect me,

God's host to save me

From snares of devils,

From temptations of vices,

From everyone who shall wish me ill,

Afar and anear,

Alone and in multitude.

I summon today all these powers between me and those evils,

Against every cruel merciless power that may oppose my body and soul,

Against incantations of false prophets,

Against black laws of pagandom

Against false laws of heretics,

Against craft of idolatry,

Against spells of witches and smiths and wizards,

Against every knowledge that corrupts man's body and soul.

Christ to shield me today

Against poison, against burning,

Against drowning, against wounding,

So that there may come to me abundance of reward.

Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me,

Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me,

Christ on my right, Christ on my left,

Christ when I lie down, Christ when I sit down, Christ when I arise,

Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me,

Christ in the mouth of everyone who speaks of me,

Christ in every eye that sees me,

Christ in every ear that hears me.

I arise today
Through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity,
Through belief in the threeness,
Through confession of the oneness,
Of the Creator of Creation.
