

6. The Lord's Prayer

The Lord's Prayer is the perfect prayer of the Christian. It puts God, our Father, first. It encourages Christians to cling to God's will, to seek forgiveness, to solicit God's help in avoiding temptation and to ask for protection against evil.

Key terms:

Prayer:	A relationship of love in which we lift our minds and hearts in conversation with God.
Temptation:	The occasion of sin or something that, when given in to and acted upon, becomes sin.
Discernment:	The process of learning through prayer and counsel the will of God in one's life.
Hallow:	To recognise the holiness of God in mind and action.
Kingdom:	The spiritual realm over which God reigns as king.
Amen:	"So be it!"

The "Our Father" or "The Lord's Prayer" holds primacy in our faith for it is the prayer that Jesus himself taught his disciples when asked to teach them how to pray. This prayer appears in Matthew 6:9-13 and Luke 11:2-4.

SUMMARY

- The Lord's Prayer, like the eucharistic liturgy itself, is fundamentally communal, the prayer of brothers and sisters of Jesus, people of common origin who dare to address God as "Abba."
- It looks forward to the "supper of the Lamb." The Eucharist is itself a foretaste of the eternal banquet that awaits us in the coming reign of God. The Lord's Prayer is strongly oriented to the fulfilment of all things and the coming of God's reign as we pray, "Your kingdom come" and "Save us from the time of trial."
- We pray for "daily bread." From early times, Christians connected this petition of the Lord's Prayer not only to ordinary sustenance but to the eucharistic feast. In our prayer for daily bread, we express our utter dependence on God.
- We seek and offer forgiveness. In the Eucharist we remember the Paschal Mystery of Christ, by which he has brought about reconciliation. As we prepare to approach the holy table, we express our need for forgiveness and pledge ourselves to share in the work of reconciliation.

Origin (Lk. 11:1-4)

- Inspired by Jesus at prayer, a disciple asks that Jesus teach all of them how to pray.
- Jesus, Son by nature, emphasises the unity of all his followers in prayer to our common Father (Eph. 4:4-6).
- We have become the adopted children of God, and we pray to the Father as his sons and daughters.
- In the unity of the Holy Spirit we call God “Abba” with the firm hope of his desire for total intimacy for us.
- The “our”, the “us”, the “we” in the Lord’s Prayer is all-inclusive; it is the Mystical Body in prayer.
- Jesus teaches us the order of priority in prayer, and what to ask for.

STRUCTURE

After the initial address to the Father, the prayer itself is composed of seven petitions. There are three “thy-petitions” (thy name, thy kingdom, thy will) followed by four “us-petitions” (give us, forgive us, lead us not and deliver us).

The first three petitions: the Father (Jn. 12:28 and Jn. 15:8)

- “Hallowed be thy name”
    - We cannot hallow God ourselves, because he IS God and is all-holy.
    - We desire that God be recognised, honoured, and loved as holy.
  - “Thy kingdom come”
    - We belong to God in mind, heart and soul.
    - God’s kingdom here is the Church and the Eucharist; hereafter, it is Heaven.
  - “Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven”
    - God’s will embodies our good, and we seek to discern his will in our lives through earnest prayer.
    - Total abandonment to the will of God is the heart of sanctity and is possible only in the Holy Spirit.

The last four petitions: asking our Father for what we need (Mt. 6:25-34)

- “Give us this day our daily bread”
  - Our endless needs show us our helplessness and need for God’s providential care.
  - God not only provides for our material needs, but also the Eucharist as bread for our souls. (Jn. 6:26-58)

- “And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us”
    - We are required to show love and mercy so that we can receive love and mercy. (Mt. 6:14-15)
    - We must forgive others even before they ask forgiveness, and we must forgive generously over and over (Rom. 5:8 and Mt. 18:21-22).
  - “And lead us not into temptation”
    - Knowing the evil of sin and our susceptibility to it, we ask to be spared from it.
  - “But deliver us from evil”
    - The greatest evil is sin, from which Jesus has ransomed us.
    - Satan is effective because we forget his existence and cunning (1Pt. 5:8-9).
  - The Prayer that Jesus taught is a summary of the Gospels and indeed of all Scripture.

The Lord’s Prayer — Suggested Questions for Discussion:

1. How is the Lord’s Prayer a summary of the whole Gospel?
2. What does it mean to call God, OUR FATHER? What is significant about this opening address?
3. Reflecting on the four “us” petitions (give us, forgive us, lead us not, deliver us), how do these requests compare with the requests you most often make in your prayers?
4. “Hallowed be thy name.” What does it mean to worship God as holy?
5. Why is our forgiveness of others integral to our relationship with God, Our Father?
6. How can we actively seek God’s kingdom and His will in our lives?
