Feast of Saint Patrick
Saint Patrick, bishop – Principal Patron of Ireland
17th March

Entrance Antiphon (Genesis 12:1-2)

Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing.

Collect

Lord, through the work of Saint Patrick in Ireland
we have come to acknowledge the mystery of the one true God and give thanks for our salvation in Christ;
grant by his prayers
that we who celebrate this festival may keep alive the fire of faith he kindled.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings: Year A & C

First Reading: Sirach 39:6-10

His memory will not disappear, and his name will live through all generations.
(Lectioary Vol II, p. 1504)

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 115:12-19. R/. v. 12

Response: How can I repay the Lord for his goodness to me?

1. How can I repay the Lord for his goodness to me?
The cup of salvation I will raise;
I will call on the Lord's name. R/.

2. My vows to the Lord I will fulfil before all his people.
O precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his faithful. R/.

3. Your servant, Lord, your servant am I;
you have loosened my bonds.
A thanksgiving sacrifice I make;
I will call on the Lord's name. R/.

4. My vows to the Lord I will fulfil
before all his people,
in the courts of the house of the Lord,
in your midst, O Jerusalem. R/.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 4:1-8

Convince, rebuke, and encourage, with the utmost patience in teaching.
(Lectionary Vol II, p. 572)

Gospel Acclamation: James 1:21

Glory to you, O Christ, you are the Word of God!
Accept and submit to the word which has been planted in you and can save your souls.
Glory to you, O Christ, you are the Word of God!

Gospel Reading: Matthew 13:24-32

It is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs.

Jesus put a parable before the crowds, 'the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field. While everybody was asleep his enemy came, sowed darnel all among the wheat, and made off.

When the new wheat sprouted and ripened, the darnel appeared as well. The owner's servants went to him and said, "Sir, was it not good seed that you sowed in your field? If so, where does the darnel come from?" "Some enemy has done this” he answered. And the servants said, “Do you want us to go and weed it out?” But he said, “No, because when you weed out the darnel you might pull up the wheat with it. Let them both grow till the harvest; and at harvest time I shall say to the reapers: First collect the darnel and tie it in bundles to be burnt, then gather the wheat into my barn.”

He put another parable before them, ‘the kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed which a man took and sowed in his field. It is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the biggest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air can come and shelter in its branches.’

Year C ad libitum

First Reading: Amos 7:12-15

The Lord took me from following the flock.

(Lectionary Vol I, p. 774)

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 138:1-3, 7-10, 13-14. R/v. 9-10

Response: If I dwell at the sea’s furthest end even there you watch over me.

1. O Lord, you search me and you know me, you know my resting and my rising,
you discern my purpose from afar.
You mark when I walk or lie down,
all my ways lie open to you. R/.

2. O where can I go from your spirit, or where can I flee from your face?
If I climb the heavens, you are there.
If I lie in the grave, you are there. R/.

3. If I take the wings of the dawn and dwell at the sea’s furthest end, even there your hand would lead me,

your right hand would hold me fast. R/.

4 For it was you who created my being,
knit me together in my mother's womb.
I thank you for the wonders of my being,
for the wonders of all your creation.

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 2:2-8

We never came with words of flattery or with a pretext for greed.
(Lectionary Vol II, p. 1490)

Gospel Acclamation: Luke 4:18

Glory to you, O Christ, you are the Word of God!
The Lord has sent me to bring good news to the poor, to proclaim liberty to captives.
Glory to you, O Christ, you are the Word of God!

Gospel Reading: Luke 5:1-11

'Lord, I am a sinful man.' Jesus said 'Do not be afraid.'

Prayer over the Gifts

Lord, accept this pure sacrifice which, through the labours of Saint Patrick, your grateful people make to the glory of your name.
Through Christ our Lord.

Preface

V/. The Lord be with you.

R/. And also with you.

V/. Lift up your hearts.

R/. We lift them up to the Lord.

V/. Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

R/. It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation,
always and everywhere to give you thanks,
Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God,
and to offer you fitting praise
as we honour Saint Patrick.

For you drew him through daily prayer in captivity and hardship to know you as a loving father.

You chose him out of all the world to return to the land of his captors, that they might acknowledge Jesus Christ, their Redeemer.

In the power of you Spirit you directed his paths to win the sons and daughters of the Irish to the service of the Triune God.

With joyful hearts we echo on earth the song of the angels in heaven
as they praise your glory without end:

Holy, Holy, Holy...

Communion Antiphon (Cf Matthew 8:11)

Many will come from east and west and sit down with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob at the feast in the kingdom of heaven, says the Lord.

Prayer after Communion

Strengthen us, O Lord, by this sacrament so that we may profess the faith taught by Saint Patrick and to proclaim it in our way of living.
Through Christ our Lord.

Solemn Blessing

May God the Father, who called us together to celebrate this feast of Saint Patrick, bless you , protect you, and keep you faithful.

R/. Amen.

May Christ the Lord, the High King of Heaven, be near you at all times and shield you from evil.

R/. Amen.

May the Holy Spirit, who is the source of all holiness, make you rich in the love of God's people.

R/. Amen.

And may the blessing of almighty God,
the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
come down on you and remain for ever.

R/. Amen.

BLESSING OF SHAMROCK

Heavenly Father,

We gather today to celebrate the life and ministry of Patrick your servant.

We ask you to bless this shamrock, our national symbol used by Patrick in his ministry to our ancestors.

You are truly one God and Three Persons,
a Trinity of love and compassion.

Through wearing this blessed shamrock, may we be reminded that your Most Holy Trinity watches over and blesses our daily lives.

We ask your blessing, ✠ in the name of the Father, creator of all, in the name of the Son, your Word made flesh and in the name of the Holy Spirit who consoles us and reminds us of your love for us,
one God forever and ever.

Amen

Or

God of power and goodness, source of all grace and crown of all the saints, through the intercession of Saint Patrick grant that as we wear this shamrock brought here for your ✠ blessing, we may be eager to imitate him whose life we celebrate,

and that our reward in heaven

may be the company of Saint Patrick whose prayerful protection is our comfort on earth.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

ST. PATRICK, APOSTLE TO THE IRISH

The man who would come to be known as Saint Patrick, apostle of Ireland, was born in Britain circa 386 A.D. His father, Calphurnius, was a deacon from a Roman family of high social standing. Patrick's mother, Conchessa, was a close relative of the great patron Saint Martin of Tours. Patrick's grandfather, Pontius, was also a member of the clergy.

Surprisingly, Patrick himself was not raised with a strong emphasis on religion. Education was not particularly stressed during his childhood either. Later in life, this would become a source of embarrassment, who would write in his Confessio, "I blush and fear exceedingly to reveal my lack of education."

Enslaved as a Teen

When Patrick was 16 years old, he was captured by Irish raiders. They brought him to Ireland where he was sold into slavery in Dalriada. There his job was to tend sheep. Patrick's master, Milchu, was a high priest of Druidism, a Pagan sect that held major religious influence over the country at the time.

Lonely and afraid, Patrick turned to his religion for solace and Patrick came to view his enslavement as God's test of his faith. During his six years of captivity, he became deeply devoted to Christianity through constant prayer. In a vision, he saw the children of pagan Ireland reaching out their hands to him and grew increasingly determined to convert the Irish to Christianity.

Freedom & Religious Calling

Around 408 A.D., the idea of escaping enslavement came to Patrick in a dream, in which a voice promised him he would find his way home to Britain.

A free man once again, Patrick went to Auxerre, France, where he studied and entered the priesthood under the guidance of the missionary Saint Germain. He was ordained a deacon by the Bishop of Auxerre around 418 A.D. As time passed, he never lost sight of his vision to convert Ireland to Christianity. In 432 A.D., he was ordained as a bishop and was soon sent by Pope Celestine I to Ireland to spread the gospel to non-believers while also providing support to the small community of Christians already living there.

Missionary Work

Recognizing the history of spiritual practices already in place, nature-oriented pagan rituals were also incorporated into church practices. Familiar with the Irish language and culture, Patrick chose to incorporate traditional ritual into his lessons of Christianity instead of attempting to eradicate native Irish beliefs. For instance, he used bonfires to celebrate Easter since the Irish were used to honouring their gods with fire. He also superimposed a sun, a powerful Irish symbol, onto the Christian cross to create what is now called a Celtic cross, so that veneration of the symbol would seem more natural to the Irish. Throughout his missionary work, Patrick supported church officials, created councils, founded monasteries and organized Ireland into dioceses.

Death and Legacy: Saint Patrick's Day

Saint Patrick died circa 461 A.D. in Saul, Ireland, and is said to have been buried in the nearby town of Downpatrick, County Down. Two writings survive: the Letter to Coroticus, a protest to the soldiers of a British prince who had killed some converts and sold others as slaves, and his Confession, written near the end of his life, showing him as one living by the faith he preached and allowing Christ to direct his whole life.

CONFESSIO OF PATRICK

1. I am Patrick, a sinner, the most rustic and least of all the faithful, the most contemptible in the eyes of a great many people. My father was Calpornius, a deacon and the son of the presbyter Potitus. He came from the village of Bannaventaberniae where he had a country residence nearby. It was there that I was taken captive. I was almost sixteen at the time and I did not know the true God. I was taken into captivity to Ireland with many thousands of people. We deserved this fate because we had turned away from God; we neither kept his commandments nor obeyed our priests who used to warn us about our salvation. The Lord's fury bore down on us and he scattered us among many heathen peoples, even to the ends of the earth. This is where I now am, in all my insignificance, among strangers.

My name is Patrick, I am a sinner: Opening lines of the Confessio, Cotton MS Nero E I/1, f.169v

2. The Lord there made me aware of my unbelief that I might at last advert to my sins and turn whole-heartedly to the Lord my God. He showed concern for my weakness, and pity for my youth and ignorance; he watched over me before I got to know him and before I was wise or distinguished good from evil. In fact he protected me and comforted me as a father would his son.
3. I cannot be silent then, nor indeed should I, about the great benefits and grace that the Lord saw fit to confer on me in the land of my captivity.

This is the way we repay God for correcting us and taking notice of us; we honour and praise his wonders before every nation under heaven.

4. There is no other God, there never was and there never will be, than God the Father unbegotten and without beginning, from whom is all beginning, holding all things as we have learned; and his son Jesus Christ whom we declare to have been always with the Father and to have been begotten spiritually by the Father in a way that baffles description, before the beginning of the world, before all beginning; and through him are made all things, visible and invisible. He was made man, defeated death and was received into heaven by the Father, who has given him all power over all names in heaven, on earth, and under the earth; and every tongue should acknowledge to him that Jesus Christ is the Lord God. We believe in him and we look for his coming soon as judge of the living and of the dead, who will treat every man according to his deeds. He has poured out the Holy Spirit on us in abundance, the gift and guarantee of eternal life, who makes those who believe and obey sons of God and joint heirs with Christ. We acknowledge and adore him as one God in the Trinity of the holy name.
5. He himself has said through the prophet: Call upon me in the day of your trouble; and I will deliver you, and you shall glorify me. He also says: it is honourable to reveal and confess the works of God.
6. Although I am imperfect in many ways I want my brothers and relatives to know what Kind of man I am, so that they may perceive the aspiration of my life.
7. I know well the statement of the Lord which he makes in the psalm: You will destroy those who speak falsely. He says again: A lying mouth destroys the soul. The same Lord says in the Gospel: On the day of judgement men will render account for every careless word they utter.
8. I ought therefore to dread with fear and trembling the sentence of that day when no one will be able to escape or hide, but when all of us will have to give an account of even our smallest sins before the court of the Lord Christ.

ST PATRICK'S BREASTPLATE

The popular prayer Saint Patrick's Breastplate is contained in the ancient Book of Armagh, from the early ninth century, along with Patrick's authentic "Confession." Saint Patrick is said to have written this prayer to strengthen himself with God's protection as he prepared to confront and convert Lóegaire, High King of Ireland.

I arise today
Through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity,
Through the belief in the threeness,
Through confession of the oneness
Of the Creator of Creation.

I arise today
Through the strength of Christ's birth with his baptism,
Through the strength of his crucifixion with his burial,
Through the strength of his resurrection with his ascension,
Through the strength of his descent for the judgment of Doom.

I arise today
Through the strength of the love of Cherubim,
In obedience of angels,
In the service of archangels,
In hope of resurrection to meet with reward,
In prayers of patriarchs,
In predictions of prophets,
In preaching of apostles,
In faith of confessors,
In innocence of holy virgins,
In deeds of righteous men.

I arise today
Through the strength of heaven:
Light of sun,
Radiance of moon,
Splendor of fire,
Speed of lightning,
Swiftness of wind,
Depth of sea,
Stability of earth,

Firmness of rock.

I arise today

Through God's strength to pilot me:

God's might to uphold me,

God's wisdom to guide me,

God's eye to look before me,

God's ear to hear me,

God's word to speak for me,

God's hand to guard me,

God's way to lie before me,

God's shield to protect me,

God's host to save me

From snares of devils,

From temptations of vices,

From everyone who shall wish me ill,

Afar and anear,

Alone and in multitude.

I summon today all these powers between me and those evils,

Against every cruel merciless power that may oppose my body and soul,

Against incantations of false prophets,

Against black laws of pagandom

Against false laws of heretics,

Against craft of idolatry,

Against spells of witches and smiths and wizards,

Against every knowledge that corrupts man's body and soul.

Christ to shield me today

Against poison, against burning,

Against drowning, against wounding,

So that there may come to me abundance of reward.

Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me,

Christ in me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me,

Christ on my right, Christ on my left,

Christ when I lie down, Christ when I sit down, Christ when I arise,

Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me,

Christ in the mouth of everyone who speaks of me,

Christ in every eye that sees me,

Christ in every ear that hears me.

I arise today
Through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity,
Through belief in the threeness,
Through confession of the oneness,
Of the Creator of Creation.
